Read the following:

G.O.Ms.No.2125, Development, dated 11.5.1951.
Letter from the Commissioner of Labour, No. A.1.40234/52 dated 9.7.1952.

ORDER:

The Government observe that, in spite of the instructions ~~x~~ issued in the G.O. read above, the Labour Officers continue to pass on to Government many disputes which could have been prevented or settled by them if they were convinced that their failure would be held up against them. The Commissioner of Labour is accordingly requested to draw the attention of the Labour Officers to the above orders of Government and also to record in all future confidential reports on Labour Officers, necessary informations under the ~~following~~ following heads for each year so as to enable the Government to assess their work

(ii) Percentage of disputes subject to strike;

(iii) Percentage of disputes settled by conciliation;

and (iv) Percentage of disputes referred to adjudication.
